MINISTERIAL ORDINANCE

Ministry of Education Ordinance No. 2
February 14, 1947

The Regulations concerning the Evaluation of Educational Films shall be fixed as follows:

Minister of Education

TAKAHASHI Seiichiro

Rules for Evaluating Educational Films

Article 1. Those motion pictures, lantern slides, film-strips and figure-dramas which are of educational value, will be evaluated and classified by the Minister of Education. (Henceforth these motion pictures, lantern slides, film-strips and figure-dramas will be summarily called educational films.)

Article 2. The evaluation of the films will be given by the Minister of Education after the consultation with the Film Reviewing Committee.

Article 3. Anyone who desires to obtain the evaluation of the Minister of Education for his film, must hand in to him a written application containing the following points, together with the film in question:

a. Whether it is a motion picture, lantern slide, film-strip or figure-drama
b. The title (Give the original title, if it is foreign)
c. The date of production
d. The name and address of the producer
e. (1) Size and form
   Motion picture: 35 mm. or 16 mm., sound or silent
   Lantern slide: big or small size
   Film-strip:

(2) Volume
   Motion picture: reels and length
   Lantern slide: number of pictures
   Film-strip: number of pictures and rolls
f. The synopsis

Article 4. The Film Reviewing Committee will concern itself only with those films which they decide are primarily of an educational nature. The films which the Film Reviewing Committee does not deem to be educational will be returned to the applicants without comment. The educational films which have been evaluated by the Minister of Education will be stamped either superior, very good, good or poor at the fixed place.

Examples 1

EDUCATIONAL FILM
“SUPERIOR”
FOR NATURE STUDY
OF UPPER STANDARD OF PRIMARY SCHOOL

EDUCATIONAL FILM
“VERY GOOD”
FOR ENTERTAINMENT OF JUVENILE

Article 5. When the educational films which have been reviewed are reprinted, the Minister of Education should be informed of the number of reprinted pictures in order that the prints may be stamped as provided in Article 4.

Article 6. The Minister of Education can re-evaluate and re-classify a film, with the consent of the Film Reviewing Committee when the film has changed its educational value, or when the film is remade to conform to educational film standard as determined by the Film Reviewing Committee.

Article 7. The applicants or producers will be told the result of the Committee’s opinion, when their films are evaluated and classified, or the evaluation of the films changed.

Article 8. When the educational films have been reviewed, they will be put in the classified catalogue making the following points clear. (The points in Article 3 are also included):

a. The date of review
b. Judgement of review
   (1) Rating of the film (Superior, very good, good or poor)
   (2) Audience for the picture
   (3) Age or grade fit for the picture
   (4) Subject for which the picture may be used
   (5) Other important points

Article 9. The catalogue of the educational films will be sent monthly to the schools, institutions concerned with the social education and to the producers.

Supplementary Provision:

The present Ordinance shall come into effect as from January 15, 1947.
